Incident Summary: On January 30th, at 11:25 PM, Officers responded to the 1000 block of Harmon Ave. where the suspect had earlier kicked in the front door and demanded cash and other property at gunpoint. The suspect fired two shots in the residence before leaving.

The suspect then proceeded to a carryout/drive thru at the 2300 block of Harrisburg Pike. The suspect waited for an employee to leave the business and go to a vehicle. The suspect robbed the employee, struck the employee several times with the firearm, and then fired more shots. Responding officers were able to apprehend the suspect at the scene without further incident.
